

SOLIHULL EXPLOITATION WEBINAR

DEVELOPING A MULTI-AGENCY UNDERSTANDING OF THE ROLE OF 'HOUSING' IN TACKLING EXPLOITATION

The aim of this webinar is to develop a shared understanding of exploitation risks amongst adults and children, and to acknowledge the important role 'housing professionals' play in the process of identification of exploitation and how they offer of ongoing support to victims, as part of the multi-agency response to dealing with exploitation.

Learning Outcomes:

- To develop a Multi-Agency understanding of Exploitation in Housing
- To talk about what Exploitation is universally
- How SCH identify Exploitation when investigating Anti-Social Behaviour
- What tools and powers are available to us to help us identify and ultimately tackle Exploitation
- Our approach to tackling Exploitation
- What type of Exploitation we see in our tenancies/properties
- Showcasing some of our successful intervention stories - (Case Studies)
- The ratio of new lettings/tenancies being provided to vulnerable applicants
- How the increase in vulnerability amongst our tenants is leading to a higher risk of them being exploited and/or becoming involved in violent activity

Wednesday 12 October 2022

10.00 - 11:30am

Click here to book via Eventbrite