

Local Child Safeguarding Practice Review – JS

A spokesperson for Solihull Safeguarding Children Partnership (SSCP) said:

“The findings of the Local Child Safeguarding Practice Review (LCSPR) for the child known as JS have been published. The review has made recommendations to the SSCP, which are detailed in an action plan and will be progressed by the relevant agencies.

We would like to thank everyone who has contributed to the review and offer our condolences to the family following this tragic accident.”
