

HOW ARE WE RESPONDING TO THE LEARNING FROM OUR MULTI-AGENCY AUDITS?

Learning and Development

- Summary slides are produced and disseminated following each multi-agency audit
- Guidance for professionals has been produced around involving children and young people in formal meetings which has been disseminated across the Partnership
- The learning from our neglect audit has informed the neglect tiered knowledge framework and the neglect continuum of tools including the screening tool
- A suite of tools to capture the voice of the child have been developed and have been trialled with a range of pupils in Solihull to ensure their effectiveness. They will be soon be available here.
- To encourage increased attendance at multi-agency training, the SSCP Training Programme has been developed and scheduled for the whole of 2024/25 to allow professionals to plan
- Guidance for professionals around capturing the voice of the child is being developed

Further assurance activity

- A further audit of neglect is scheduled for 2024/25 to measure the impact of the neglect continuum of tools.
- A dip sample will be completed to take a further look at Exploitation and the MAACE process.
- In 2024/25 audits will be completed on children on a Child in Need Plan, Childrens Mental Health and Sexual Abuse.

Neglect Screening Tool Guide

Purpose of the tool

- To equip practitioners across Solihull to quickly identify areas of concern that may indicate neglect in children and young people at an early stage.
- Alert the need for action and an appropriate response.
- Identify which agency/ practitioner will progress with assessment or intervention as needed.

Who can use the tool?

The screening tool is intended to be used by practitioners from all agencies/ organisations/ disciplines across Solihull.
It is applicable to all ages to help identify neglect and associated factors across all age ranges.

Telling people about myself

Imagine you are meeting someone for the first time. Write down three things you would tell them about yourself.

My meeting

What happened at the meeting?

This is how well I felt listened to:

Is there anything that could make the meeting better next time?

How many stars would you give your meeting?
